

Notice of 2024 AADA Board Elections & Nominations

Date: 18 September 2024

The new AADA was established in 2014 by its Founding Members.

In 2024, the representative positions up for election in your state are:

- Queensland: Nick Pappas - Standing for re-election
- Australian Capital Territory: Peter Axiom - Standing for re-election
- Northern Territory: David Hayes - Standing for re-election
- Victoria: Nominations received in the notice period which concluded on 06/09/2024. The successful candidate will be announced at the 2024 AGM.
- Western Australia: Nominations received in the notice period which concluded on 06/09/2024. The successful candidate will be announced at the 2024 AGM.

Suitably qualified and experienced motor vehicle Dealers are invited to stand and contest the election for Queensland, Northern Territory and the Australian Capital Territory in the forthcoming elections. The closing date for nominations is COB 1 October 2024.

If no other candidate contests the election in the States listed then those who have nominated for re-election above or any single nominee will be duly elected and serve a three year term.

Parties interested should confirm their desire to stand for election in writing to the AADA Returning Officer, Vinesh George - vinesh@vsgeorge.com.au

All candidates must comply with the AADA Code of Practice regarding Elections, which will be provided upon a candidate standing.

AADA Directors serve in an entirely voluntary capacity and donate their time and experience to give back to the industry. More details of the role and likely time required to fulfil the role can be provided by the AADA.
