

AUSTRALIAN
AUTOMOTIVE
DEALER
ASSOCIATION

NOTICE OF 2020 AADA BOARD ELECTIONS & NOMINATIONS

The new AADA was established in 2014 by its Founding Members.

The AADA Constitution provides that 2020 is the fifth year that Members are invited to vote for their representative.

In 2020, the representative positions that comes up for election in your state is:

- Queensland: Nick Pappas standing
- Victoria: Nicholas Strauss standing
- ACT: Peter Axiom standing
- Northern Territory: David Hayes standing

Suitably qualified and experienced motor vehicle Dealers are invited to stand and contest the election to represent their State in the forthcoming elections. The closing date for nominations is 2 October 2020.

Interested parties should confirm their desire to stand for election in writing to the AADA Returning Officer, Vinesh George at PO BOX 4236, Bexley North, Sydney, 2207, NSW or by email vinesh@vsgeorge.com.au.

If no other candidate contests the election in the States listed then the proposed candidates (above) or any single nominee will be duly elected and serve a 2 year term.

All candidates must comply with the AADA Code of Practice regarding Elections, which will be provided upon a candidate standing.

AADA Directors serve in an entirely voluntary capacity and donate their time and experience to give back to the industry. More details of the role and likely time required to fulfil the role can be provided by the AADA.

If you have any questions please contact the below AADA team member:

Vinesh George
Company Secretary & Legal Counsel
Australian Automotive Dealer Association
E: vinesh@vsgeorge.com.au
M: +61 404 007 078